

Notification to Providers Regarding HealthSmart RBRVS Update Schedule Modification

HealthSmart Resource Based Relative Value Scale or HealthSmart RBRVS means the proprietary methodology designated by HealthSmart to produce the allowable fee for certain Covered Services rendered to Eligible Persons that uses the components of relative value units (RVU's), geographic practice cost indices (GPCI's), conversion factor and base relativity factors, as defined by HealthSmart.

Beginning January 1, 2016 The HealthSmart RBRVS allowable fees will be updated in accordance with industry standards and by HealthSmart annually to reflect new information regarding RVU's, GPCI's, conversion factor, and the addition of new codes and services.

The updates will be made on or before April 1 each year.
